Manage email with SSW LookOut! for Outlook

Did you ever hit the send/receive button only to realize that you forgot the attachment, or didn't 'reply all'? Email is a fundamental corporate communications tool used every day to manage staff, establish contacts and communicate with clients. Use SSW LookOut! to organise and manage your email and help ensure e-mail is always an advantage to your business and not a liability! With tons of rules and auditing checks, SSW LookOut! also notifies the user whether emails are from people within their corporate Access or SQL Server database.

“Now that I've been using it for a little while, I don't think I can put it away - it's just too darn useful and makes too much sense to just stop using it. And that, my friends, is the first sign of really good software.”
